

ANDOVER PUBLIC LIBRARY ART GALLERY
SCHEDULE JANUARY THROUGH MAY

THE ART OF EMPRISE
PHOTO ESSAY OF THE SCULPTURES OF M.T. LIGGETT

Cary Conover is a photo-journalism instructor at Andover High School. His 15 photos capture some of the works of metal sculptor M.T. Liggett of Mullinville, Kansas. Liggett began creating metal sculptures in 1989 and lining them up in pastures along Highway 400 outside of Mullinville. He turns old farm equipment, car parts, road signs and other odd bits into whimsical, fantastic characters.

This is the first showing of the photo essay and a new acquisition to the Art of Emprise Collection. Exhibit runs through January.

JON ROE
“A THOUSAND WORDS”

Jon Roe, retired newspaper and television journalist, has painted professionally for 21 years and moved to abstract art two years ago. His acrylics on canvas are inspired by literature. He is represented by the Courtyard Gallery in Lindsborg and has exhibited in 28 galleries and museums in Kansas. His work hangs in collections in 24 states. Exhibit runs through February.
